

Retail Sales Performance

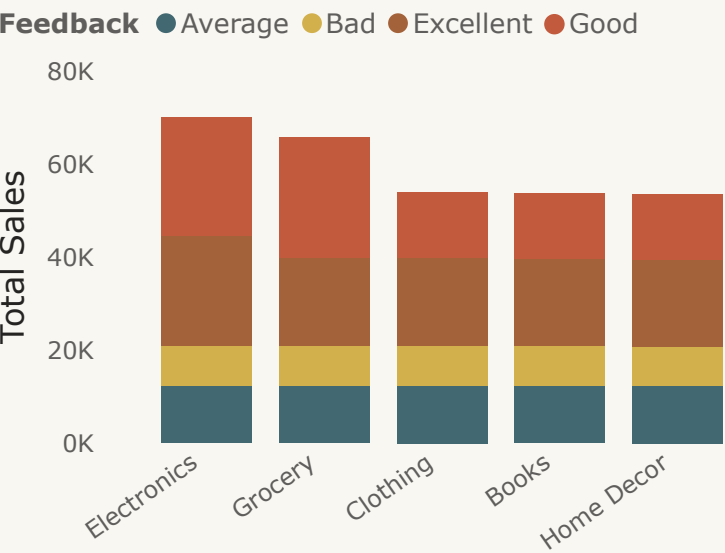

The stores are located in Australia, Europe, and North America

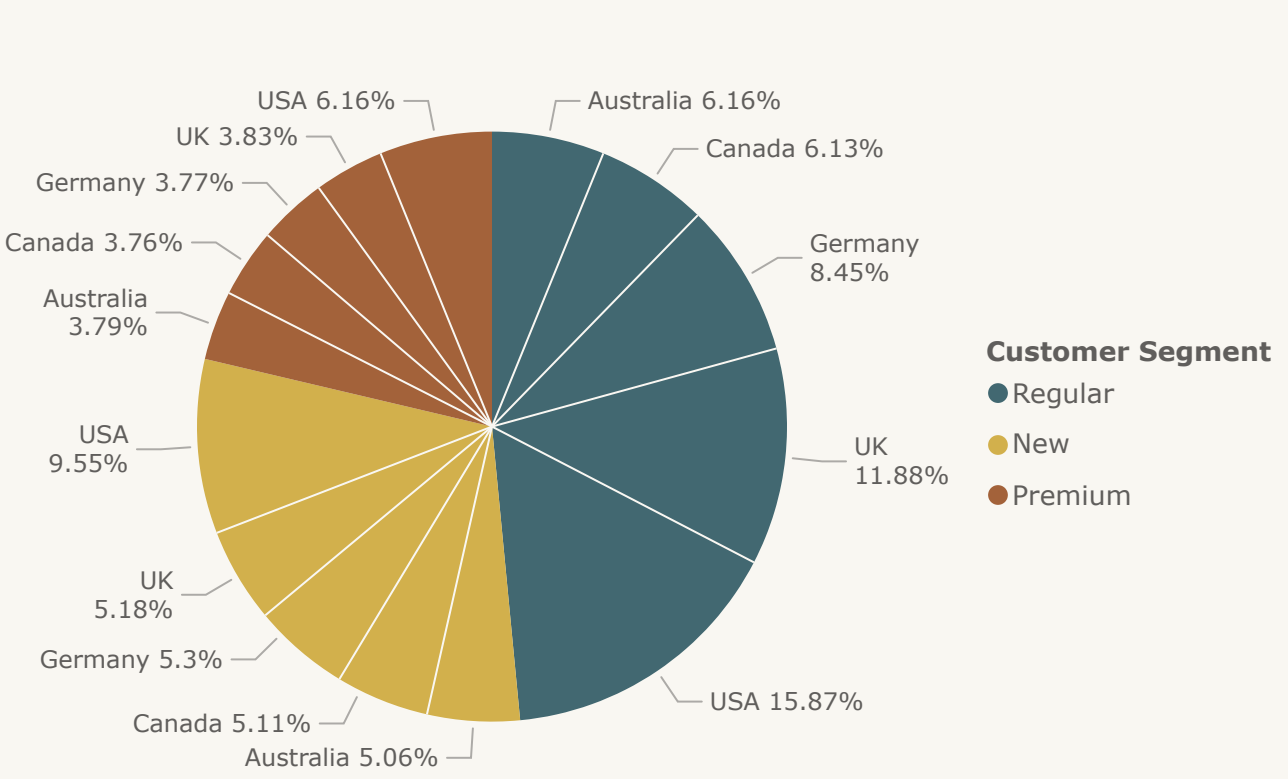

Customer Feedback by Product Category

Customers highly rate the performance of the stores and the quality of the products.

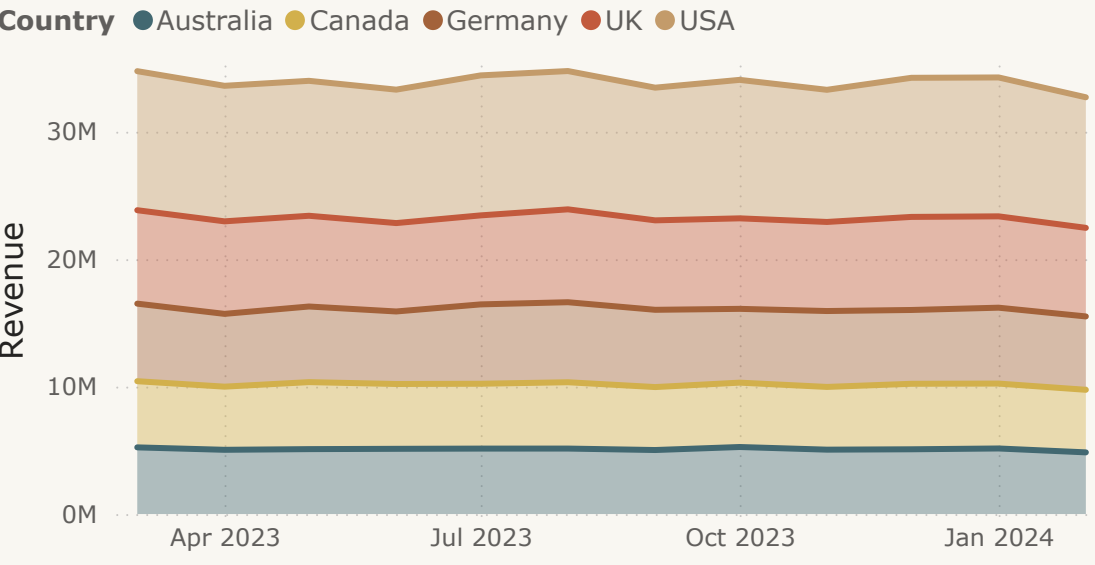

Sales by Customer Segment and Country

The highest sales are in the USA. Additionally, 30% of customers are new buyers, which is a positive sign as it indicates strong customer acquisition and potential for long-term growth.

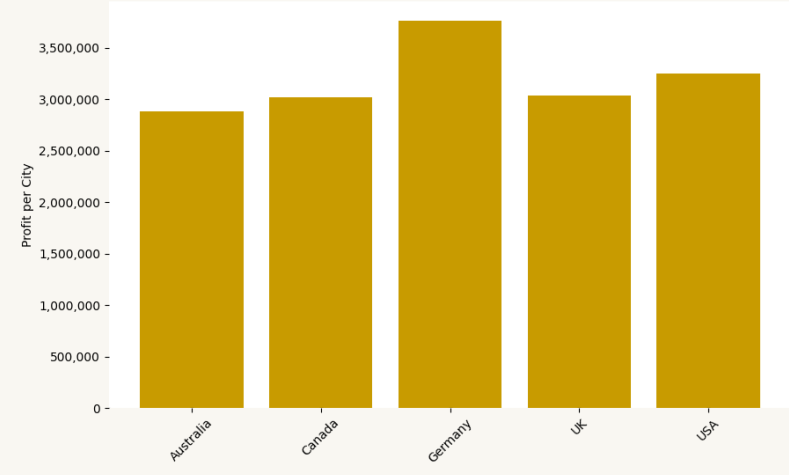

Revenue over Date and Country

The highest revenue comes from the USA, while the lowest is from Australia.

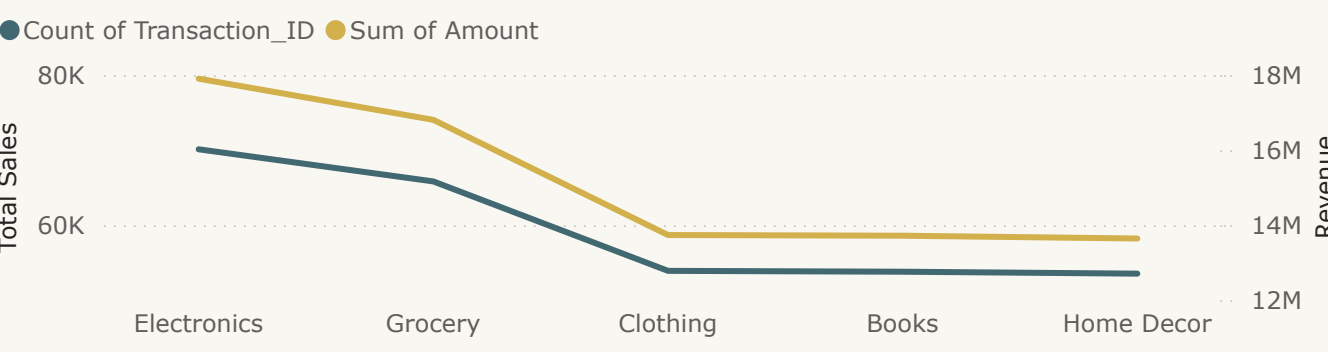

Profit per City by Country

Although the USA has the highest number of stores and overall profit, individual cities in Germany generate higher revenue.

Total Sales and Revenue by Product Category

The highest number of orders and revenue come from the electronics and grocery categories.

Sales Performance by Countries

Country

All

